DOGGERS TROUNCED AGAIN BY YANKEES

National League Champions
Beaten for Fourth Time
by 12 to 3.

TWO PITCHERS POUNDED

Eighteen Hits Batted Off of Deliveries of Mamaux and Mitchell.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
ALEXANDRIA, La., March 24.—The Yankees and Dodgers met here this afternoon in the fourth exhibition game of their series, and the result was another beating for the National League champions. The score was 12 to 3, and Robbie's men are getting used to being handled roughly by Huggins's hard hitting team. Charley Ebbets must have had the Culls board talking to him last night, as he did not make the trip with his players from New Orleans. A crowd of about 4,500, the largest that ever saw an exhibition game here, was on hand.

Mamaux and Mitchell pitched for the Dodgers and were found for a total of eighteen hits. Rip Collins and Bill Piercy pitched for the American Leaguers. Mamaux pitched the first five innings for Brooklyn, and Collins started the first four against the champions. The Yankees scored their first run in the opening inning. Pester walked, Connolly was called out on strikes and Ruth hit to Koney, whose throw to Olsen forced Pester. Pipp sent a fly to left, and Lamar made a good attempt at a shoestring catch, but failed, and Ruth reached third on the single. Mauseil singled to center, and Babe scored.

In the next inning the Yankees bunched four hits and pushed three more tallies over the plate. Mitchell led off with a single to left, and after Hoffman died to Neil, Rip Collins singled past Koney and Mitchell reached third. Pester hit to Olsen, who fell while fielding the ball, but aroused the natives by making a back hand throw to Kilduff, who also fell in going after the tag, but managed to keep his feet on second. Collins was forced out on a spectacular play, on which Mitchell scored. Connolly followed with a two bagger to deep left, and Pester scored from first.

Babe's Pop Fly Fails Safe.
The Brooklyn outfielders played way back for Ruth and he raised a high pop fly, which Griffith started to run for. Although the ball went a mile high, it bounced the ground just as Griffith got near it, and Babe was credited with a two bagger. Connolly scoring. Pipp fanned for the third out.

Uncle Robbie's champions manufactured a run in the third inning when Miller was hit by a pitched ball, went to second on Mamaux's single to center, and scored on Johnston's single to right. In the next inning the Dodgers had the bags thickly pushed, with one out, but could not push a tally over the plate. Bernie Neils led off with a double to Ruth's territory and Kilduff fled to second after the catch. Neils ran to third safely. Miller and Mamaux each walked, filling the bases. Olsen hit to Ward, whose throw to Hoffman forced Neils at the plate, and Johnston fled to Connolly, leaving three mates stranded. Bill Piercy was pitching and Devoemer was catching for the Yankees when the Dodgers came to bat in the fifth, and tarry threatened to score another tally.

With two out, Lamar singled and reached third when Neils bounced a double off Ward's shins. Kilduff was tossed out by Piercy for the last out. In their half of the fifth the Yankees slammed out seven hits, including a long triple by Ruth and doubles by Connolly and Ward, which sent over the top. The Babe opened the slugger round with a three bagger and made the third out by sending a hot grounder to Kilduff, who tossed him out first.

Krueger Hits for Circuit.

Singles by Miller and Griffith, coupled with a pass to Johnston, resulted in a run for the Dodgers in the sixth inning. The Yankees scored three more runs in the seventh on Pipp's double, singles by Ruth and Piercy and a pass to Connolly. In the Dodgers' half of the eighth Krueger hit to deep center for a home run.
